The 21ˢᵗ Meeting of the International Circle of Korean Linguistics
Monash University, 10-12 July 2019

The 21st Biennial Meeting of the International Circle of Korean Linguistics (ICKL21) will be held at Monash University, Melbourne, Australia on 10-12 July 2019 (arrival and banquet on 10 July; conference presentations on 11-12). This will be the second international conference since the merger of the Harvard-ISOKL (Harvard International Symposium on Korean Linguistics) into the ICKL (International Circle of Korean Linguistics).

By holding the conference in Melbourne, ICKL will return to Australia for the first time in 23 years, and this will be only the second ICKL conference in the Southern Hemisphere. We will celebrate the relaunch of the Korean Studies program at Monash University.

We welcome abstracts for papers on any aspect of Korean language and linguistics including, but not limited to; Phonetics, Phonology, Morphology, Syntax, Semantics, Pragmatics, Historical-Comparative Linguistics, Psycholinguistics, Cognitive Linguistics, Sociolinguistics, Discourse & Grammaticalisation, First & Second Language Acquisition, and Language Education.

Guidelines for abstract submission:

We welcome abstracts touching on any of the above-listed (or related) fields for oral presentation (20 minute talk and 10 minute discussion). Abstracts must be submitted electronically to the following address:
